Of
OUR REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH
Cedar Falls, Iowa

(Revised January 10, 2011)

THE CHURCH COUNCIL AND COMMITTEE CHAIRS

Church Council, Boards, and Committees

Members of the Church Council:

- The Pastor
- The President
- The Vice-President
- The Secretary
- The Treasurer
- The Financial Secretary
- The Chair of the Board of Elders
- The Chair of the Board of Education
- The Chair of the Board of Evangelism
- The Chair of the Board of Stewardship
- The Chair of the Board of Christian Care
- The Chair of the Board of Trustees
- The Chair of the Board of Youth

1. All board and committee chairs shall meet with their respective boards and committees on a regular basis as business demands. They shall inform their board or committee members at least one day in advance of the meetings.
2. The chairs shall consult with the Pastor before each board or committee meeting for agenda items and shall incorporate them into the meeting agenda.
3. The chairs shall see to it that motions and projects of the congregation, Council, and their boards or committees are completed on time.
4. The chairs and the officers shall give concise reports on their activities at each regularly scheduled Voters Assembly. They shall word all motions carefully and shall prepare them, in written form, for distribution at Voters Assembly meetings.
5. The chairs and the officers shall attend the regular Council meeting as well as special Council meetings. They shall report on their work and the work of their boards and committees since the previous Council meeting. They will also bring forth any motions from their respective groups for Council consideration. And they will contribute their ideas to the Council on all congregational business matters.
6. The chairs and officers shall take an active part in developing their respective portions of the congregational budget during annual budget preparations. They will be ready to present their budget recommendations to the Council, and, following Council consideration, to the Voters Assembly.
7. The chairs and officers will administer their portions of the congregational budget with diligence and with the best interests of the congregation in mind.

8. As representatives of the congregation, the chairs and officers will participate in debate, disseminate information, conduct church business, and interact with others in the spirit of Christian charity and in a God-pleasing manner.
9. The board chairs have the authority to spend funds budgeted to their boards if balances in Church accounts are sufficient for such expenditures. In order to provide better coordination of financial matters, and to allow for timely payment of bills, board chairs should inform the Council of upcoming budgeted expenditures exceeding $1000. Board chairs must receive Council approval for expenditures exceeding the amounts budgeted to their boards.

THE PRESIDENT

1. The President will perform the duties generally expected of an executive officer of the congregation.
2. The President will preside at all meetings of the congregation, the Voters Assembly, and the Church Council.
3. The President will take an active and leading part in assisting other officers and chairs in developing the annual congregational budget and integrating the individual parts of the budget into a workable whole.
4. The President is an ex-officio member of all boards and committees. He shall see that all boards and committees are functioning properly. He may attend board and committee meetings when it is useful or advisable.
5. The President will prepare an agenda for all Voters Assembly and Council meetings. He will meet periodically with the Pastor to discuss current congregational business and plans for the future.
6. The President is responsible for notifying the congregation on the time and location of Voters Assembly meetings. He shall also see that a meeting agenda is posted in a timely manner.
7. The President shall appoint a Nominating Committee in preparation for the annual election of officers and chairs. The committee will consist of the Chair of the Board of Stewardship and two other voting members of the congregation.
8. The President shall appoint a Financial Review Committee to review church financial matters. The committee shall consist of three voting members of the congregation. The review shall be complete by July 31 of each year.
9. The President is a member of the Joint Parish Council and will attend Joint Parish Council meetings.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT

1. The Vice-President will preside over meetings of the Voters Assembly and Church Council when the President is unable to attend. In the event of vacancy in the office of President, the Vice-President shall succeed to the office of President for the remainder of the term.
2. The Vice-President shall attend committee meetings as requested by the President.
3. The Vice-President shall aid in the training of new officers.
4. The Vice-President shall stimulate social gatherings of the congregation.
5. The Vice-President shall work with the Boards to ensure that appropriate paid employee job descriptions are in place for the person(s) who are accountable to a particular Board (reference ORLC Organizational Chart).
6. The Vice-President shall work with the Boards to ensure that appropriate personnel records are kept current; annual performance reviews are conducted to provide feedback on how an individual has carried out the assigned responsibilities; and to set goals to be accomplished for the next year and the future.

THE SECRETARY

1. The Secretary is a member of the Joint Parish Council and will attend Joint Parish Council meetings.
2. The Secretary will attend regular and special congregational voters meetings, will take minutes at said meetings, and will write and distribute the meeting minutes.
3. The Secretary is a member of the congregation's Church Council and, as such, will attend regular and special meetings of the Church Council.
4. The Secretary will take minutes at said meetings and then write and distribute the meeting minutes to the Council members.
5. The Secretary will provide copies of the meeting minutes to the church secretary for distribution to congregation members.
6. The Secretary shall conduct such official correspondence as is necessary.

THE TREASURER

1. The Treasurer shall see that the congregational ledger is accurately kept up to date.
2. The Treasurer shall make disbursements authorized by the congregation.
3. The Treasurer shall give full attention to all financial questions relating to the work of the congregation.
4. The Treasurer shall provide appropriate financial reports to the Voter's Assembly and Council meetings.
5. The Treasurer is a member of the Joint Parish Council and will attend Joint Parish Council meetings.

THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

1. The Financial Secretary shall be responsible for receiving, counting, and depositing in the church's bank accounts all incoming money. The offerings shall be counted in the church office following the worship service or Bible study, or placed in the church's safe to be counted the following morning. Immediately after counting, the money shall be deposited in the bank.
2. The Financial Secretary shall enlist two (2) voting members of the congregation to help in counting the weekly offerings. Spouses should not be paired as a team for counting offerings. May 2007 Council Meeting Minutes.
3. The Financial Secretary will keep records of the contributions of each individual member of the congregation and provide them to the church office weekly and work in cooperation with the Board of Stewardship.
4. The Financial Secretary shall work closely with the Treasurer to promptly resolve any discrepancies relating to the financial records.
5. The Financial Secretary shall provide appropriate financial reports to the Voter's Assembly and Council meetings.

THE BOARD OF ELDERS

1. The Board of Elders shall, at each meeting following the congregational election of officers, elect a secretary and a head elder.
2. The Board of Elders shall assist the Pastor with the details connected with the services of the church as specified in the Board of Elders' "Service Responsibilities" document.

3. The Board of Elders shall assist the Pastor in all matters pertaining to the spiritual welfare of the congregation.
4. The Board of Elders shall assist the Pastor in difficult problems of the ministry, and see to it that congregational discipline is carried out according to the dictates of Scripture, as specified in Our Redeemer's Constitution and Bylaws.
5. The Board of Elders shall examine carefully such applications for membership as may be referred to them by the Pastor, and shall report what action was taken to the Council.
6. The Board of Elders shall make every effort to encourage members who have been negligent in their attendance at services and in the use of the Sacraments to make use of these gifts of God.
7. The Board of Elders shall be bound by Christian charity and prudence to keep all matters of discipline confidential and within the records of their Board.
8. The Board of Elders shall (as is incumbent upon all members of the body of Christ) watch in Christian love over the doctrine, life, and official conduct of the Pastor(s), and other members of the congregational staff.
9. The Board of Elders shall (as is incumbent upon all members of the body of Christ) look after the temporal welfare of the Pastor(s) and other congregational staff.
10. The head elder may call special meetings of the Board of Elders.
11. The Board of Elders shall meet on a regular basis (at least six times per year).
12. The Board of Elders shall work with District and Circuit leaders for arranging pastoral services when a vacancy occurs in the office of the ministry, including the exercising of proper leadership in calling a pastor. At least one elder shall be included on any call committee.
13. The Board of Elders shall appoint one elder to serve as a representative to the Joint Parish Council. This representative will attend Joint Parish Council meetings.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

1. The Board of Trustees shall consist of six elected members. The Chairman shall be elected by and from the six trustees.
2. The Board of Trustees shall be the Directors of the church corporation.
3. The Board of Trustees shall see that the church buildings and properties are kept in excellent physical and functional order.
4. The Board of Trustees shall see that janitorial supplies are well stocked. They shall purchase necessary equipment for efficient maintenance. They shall make recommendations for custodial services, lawn services, snow removal, and then supervise those services.
5. On group work projects, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees shall be responsible for making available materials and tools for such work projects. The Board of Trustees shall hire qualified contractors for large projects, when necessary, and supervise the completion of the work.
6. The Board of Trustees shall make suggestions for improvement of the properties and facilities and see to it that such improvements are completed, after approval through the Church Council or the Voter's Assembly.
7. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to make contracts, accept and receive grants and bequests, sign documents, and appear in court.
8. The Board of Trustees shall make an annual review of insurance coverage to determine its adequacy.
9. The Board of Trustees shall keep and maintain an inventory of church property.
10. Should the Pastor choose not to live in the Parsonage, the Board of Trustees will be responsible for managing the lease of the Parsonage property, which will not include the storage garage next to the alley. Further, the Board of Trustees will generate a lease management plan, which would govern such items as terms of the lease contract, lease price, lease advertising, and income management.
11. Dividing duties shall be as follows on a volunteer basis.

- a. Contracts, insurance, review as needed. Boiler, fire, etc., inspections
 - b. Grounds and janitorial supplies. Be in charge of mowing, snow removal, contracts and getting janitorial supplies and supervising as necessary
